

Srishyla Educational Trust (R), Bheemasamudra

GM INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY, DAVANGERE

Approved by AICTE | Affiliated by V.T.U Belagavi | Recognized by Govt. of Karnataka

A report on "International Women's Day 2022, celebrated on 08th March 2022 At GM Institute of Technology Davangere.

International women's day was conducted on 8th march 2023 in GM Halamma auditorium president of the function Dr. Sanjay Pande M B professor and principal GM Institute of Technology, Chief guest Mrs. Kiruvadi Girijamma, Honorary President Karnataka Hemophilia Davanagere, Women's Cell Chair Person Dr. Neelambike S, Associate Professor Department of Information Science and Engineering, CICC Chief Coordinator Mrs. Manjula B K Assistant Professor Department of Electronics and Communication Engineering and Mrs. WEC chief Coordinator Mrs. Asha K Assistant Professor Department of Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning presided over the function along with all the ladies teaching and non teaching staff.

The Master of Ceremony was conducted by Dr. Manjula G M Department of Mathematics, the function started with welcome dance (Bharathnatyam) by Mrs. Nagashree Assistant Professor Department of Mathematics followed by invocation song Mrs. Savitha K C Assistant Professor, Department of Mathematics. The program was formally inaugurated by watering the plant by dignitaries on the stage. Mrs. Shobha R P Assistant Professor, Department of English enlightens the audience about significance of international women's day by delivering a speech and Mrs. Sowmya Assistant Professor; Department of English did it through Kavana vaachana. Then the promo of Women achievers was broadcasted in the auditorium.

Chief guest Mrs. Kiruvadi Girijamma, thrown light on lineage of women achievers by giving examples such as Kithur Rani Chenamma, Vanake Obava, up to recent time achievers Dr. Nimarla Kesari etc. she also told that the teachers as well as students should take up societal activities through that achieve greater heights in the personal as well as professional life. Then the function continued by felicitating the chief guest by dignitaries on the stage. Principal enlighten the audience about the importance of women's day by giving example of his mother and her role in shaping his life. He also Expressed that women's are mentally strong than men and they can handled both professional and personal in more competent way than men. Finally the function concluded by Miss Shilpha V A Assistant professor Department of Chemistry by delivering vote of thanks.

Deputed Few Faculty for Attending Workshop

The GM Institute of Technology women Cell, Davangere, is deputing two faculty members from Poornima Electrical Department and Deepa Language department are deputed to attend a three-day workshop on "Personal and Professional Sustainability of Women in Society" from February 22nd to 24th, 2023, sponsored by Visvesvaraya Technological University Belagavi. Organized by women's cell RYMEC Bellary.